

FAMILY PROGRAM

Grandparents Expo Family Education Program

Livengrin supports both patient and family

Livengrin Knows

Inpatient treatment gives patients tools for recovery

Support goes beyond the patient to families

No one recovers on their own

Addiction is referred to as a family disease that impacts all members. There is a growing need to support grandparents who are now raising their grandchildren due to familial addiction issues

When: Thursday, June 7th, 2018, 6:30-8:00 pm

Where: Livengrin, Main Campus,
Chapman Community Center,
4833 Hulmeville Rd.
Bensalem, PA 19020

Who: Free to everyone—bring your friends, family, colleagues.

Contact: Dana Cohen, dcohen@livengrin.org

Livengrin hopes to support these families by providing them with information and access to resources. This event will offer a Q/A session from professionals including;

- Judge Matthews
- Mary Cushing Doherty, Family Law Attorney
- Nancy McCarty, associate of State Representative Gene Digirolamo
- Maggie Devlin, associate of Bucks County Area Agency on Aging
- Marlene Angert, Child Psychologist

To avoid childcare as a barrier some volunteers will be available to look after any children ages 3 and up-MUST register ahead of time if bringing children. Email Dana Cohen at dcohen@livengrin.org to register.

For additional resources that can help your family members cope with a loved one’s substance use, please take a look at the Livengrin Family Toolkit: <https://www.livengrin.org/family/>
